Basic Detail Report

Baily's Brewery, Wyndham Road c.1860

Date

c.1927

Primary Maker

Guy Miller

Medium

Water-colour

Description

There were several small independent breweries in Camberwell up to the end of the nineteenth century. Baily's Brewery dated from the preceding century. When the painting was exhibited in "Camberwell Past and Present" in 1938 the brewery was said to have "diffused the odour of its processes for a great distance around".

Dimensions

Object/Work: 182 x 252 mm