

Mill at Camberwell

Primary Maker

E. Calcott

Medium

Drawing

Description

This tower mill stood in the fields east of Wells Way and appears on Bryant's map of 1823. It was known to be a corn mill, but nothing is known of who operated it or when it was demolished. The naming of Windmill Place, off Wells Way, commemorates the mill.