

Basic Detail Report

YMCA Hut, Camberwell Green 1916-18

Date

1923

Primary Maker

Russell Reeve

Medium

Water-colour

Description

During the First World War, the YMCA set up many temporary huts like this around the country. They served as social centres for servicemen on leave or recuperating from injuries. The artist made this painting several years after the war, either from memory or a photograph.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 584.2 x 482.6 mm