

Basic Detail Report

Livery and Bait Stable, Vestry Road

Date

c1927

Primary Maker

Guy Miller

Medium

Water-colour

Description

Guy Miller was an architect and stained-glass artist who from 1919 to 1930 lived at 20a Peckham Road, Camberwell. He was a prolific painter of local views. These stables are thought to have stood on the corner opposite the Town Hall. The wall-painted advertisements list various forms of carriage available for hire, and stabling for horses.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 176 x 253 mm