

Untitled: Lady in a Hat

Primary Maker

Richard Beer

Medium

Lithograph on paper

Description

Figure subjects are a rarity for Beer. He is best known for his architectural studies in England and Italy, among them a number of churches and religious buildings in cities including London and Venice. Beer also produced a series of etchings that depict the grand colleges of Oxford University.