

Watch House, Long Lane, Bermondsey

Date

1971

Primary Maker

Herbert J Litterick

Medium

Water-colour

Description

Herbert Litterick (1912-1978) was an artist from Bolton who was trained in Manchester. He served in the army before being hired as art director of a London advertising agency. During this time he worked extensively with art and designed the St. Bride's guild badge. (December 2008) Watch House, Long Lane, Bermondsey Herbert J. Litterick 1971. Watercolour GA1261

Dimensions

Object/Work: 500 x 345 mm