

Basic Detail Report

Bath-Clog

Date

1858

Medium

Wood

Description

Kabkab; a raised wooden bath clog or sandal. It has inlaid ivory or bone decoration, and a silk strap across top with metal embroidery. These were worn by women in bath houses to protect feet from heated and wet tiled floors. Attributed to Syria.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 105 x 85 x 235 mm