

Basic Detail Report

---

Fish-Hook

Date

1700-1840

Medium

Shell, tortoise-shell, glass

Description

Small Aipa or fish hook. The shank is formed of a plate of pearl shell, and a curved turtle-shell hook is attached to the shank with fibre string. A hackle of tiny red glass beads is also threaded on the fibre. Polynesia, possibly Friendly Islands.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 70 x 70 mm