

Basic Detail Report

---

Trumpet

Date
1700-1840

Medium
Wood, coir

Description
Pu torino (Maori trumpet) formed of two bands of wood of a rich brown colour, bound with 5 bands of coir string. It has a carved face in the centre with the mouth as a hole. It tapers towards the lower end where there is a small hole. Called a bugle flute, not trumpet

Dimensions
Object/Work: 352 x 352 mm