

Figurine

Date

1800-1850

Medium

Wood, pigment

Description

Figure of a Portuguese priest representing the European - and particularly Portuguese - presence in West Africa from the 15th Century onwards. Portuguese, Dutch, British and French presence in West Africa was led by trading interests, which eventually became dominated by the slave trade.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 365 x 235 mm