

Basic Detail Report

Spoon

Date
1700-1900

Medium
Wood

Description

Dark brown wooden spoon with a long, straight handle. It divides into two sections a little more than half way down from top with narrow gap between. Both sections have square knobs or projections at the sides, alternating in sequence. The spoon bowl is deep and pointed, and at an angle to the handle. Thought to be Zulu. African subcontinent.