

Basic Detail Report

Club

Date
1700-1900

Medium
Wood, shell

Description
Taiaha quarterstaff or stave. Made of dark red wood with one end flattened to a narrow blade. The top is decorated with a carved double face and long pointed tongue with elaborate surface designs, and abalone shell eye inserts. It would have been used by a person over 3m tall. Maori.

Dimensions
Object/Work: 1825 x 1825 mm