

Whistle

Date

1700-1837

Medium

Glass, wood, cord

Description

Necklace of white glass beads and a wooden pendant. The pendant is a whistle that was used to charm away thunder. Purchased by Richard Cuming from the sale of the South African Association Exhibition 1837.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 122 x 60 x 20 mm