

Spoon

Date

1800-1900

Medium

Wood

Description

Wooden spoon with a long handle of wood. The handle has a deeply carved twisted ridge along its full length. The bowl is deep and oval shaped and at a 40 degree angle to the handle. At the top of the handle there is a twisted plant fibre loop attached through a hole at the top. It has been charred or stained black. Thought to be Zulu. African subcontinent.

