

Basic Detail Report

Statuette

Date
1800-1850

Medium
Earthenware

Description
Fake Aztec figure of a coiled snake with an uplifted head and circular markings on its back. Henry Syer Cuming worked hard in later life to uncover fakes but inevitably they did find their way into this and other museum's collections.

Dimensions
Object/Work: 85 x 70 mm