

Basic Detail Report

---

Harpoon

Date
1850-1902

Medium

Wood, bone

Description

Model of a harpoon, made of wood with a bone head. Small wooden models were most often used as children's toys or sold to tourists when Inuit art became popular collector's items. Harpoon models from Greenland are found in many collections and in many different styles and date from the early 1900s.