

Handle

Date

1250-1300

Medium

Ivory

Description

Knife handle beautifully carved out of a piece of the tusk of the Rostungr Rosmar, Morse or walrus. It depicts 2 female figures standing back to back wearing long vests and holding a straight staff before them; at the top is a finial in the shape of a horse.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 105 x 20 x 15 mm