

Basic Detail Report

---

Spoon

Date
1820-1840

Medium
Pewter

Description
Pewter medicine spoon. It has an elongated bowl with hinged cover, a hole at the tip, and tubular handle and flange. The medicine would be poured through the tube into the bowl. It has been impressed with the word 'Warranted'. Known as a Gibson spoon after its inventor Charles Gibson in 1827.

Dimensions
Object/Work: 185 x 185 mm