

Basic Detail Report

Phylactery

Date
1800-1844

Medium
Leather, wood

Description
Jewish Phylactery or Tephila. Small leather box traditionally worn by Jewish men during Morning Prayer. Contains Hebrew inscriptions of passages from the Pentateuch, the first five books of the Old Testament. Worn wound around the left arm.

Dimensions
Object/Work: 155 x 30 mm