

Waistcoat

Date

1780

Primary Maker

Henry Syer Cuming

Medium

Silk, cotton

Description

Gentleman's waistcoat. It is made of brown corded silk and is lined with white cotton. It has brown silk-corded buttons, and two pockets with flaps at the front. The back is made of wool. It was worn by Henry Syer Cuming.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 690 x 500 mm

