

Waistcoat

Date

1600-1700

Medium

Silk

Description

Gentleman's silk waistcoat of faded grey silk that was once silver thread, brocaded with a pink rose pattern. It has brocaded buttons down the front, two pockets with scalloped flaps, and three decorative buttons under each pocket. The buttons are decorated with silver thread and sequins. Formally worn by a Mr John Topper.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 740 x 450 mm