

Basic Detail Report

Necklace

Date

2700-30 BC

Medium

Faience, glass, rock crystal, agate

Description

Fragments of an ancient Egyptian necklace. The beads are made of various stones, glass and crystals. Many small cylindrical beads of varying materials are strung on the necklace. Six larger conical green beads hang in between. Found on a mummy in Egypt and originally from the collection of Giovanni D'Athanasii.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 97 mm