

Basic Detail Report

Slipper

Date

1835

Medium

Wood, metal, leather, textile

Description

Lady's slipper or low-heeled mule. It has a wooden sole with a narrow heel and a pointed toe. The body of the shoe is of faded blue leather decorated with a panel of blue and orange embroidery, and attached to the sole with metal studs. According to the Cuming original catalogue these are from Greece.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 70 x 70 x 255 mm