

Basic Detail Report

Pen-Holder

Date

1830

Primary Maker

Edward Lovett

Medium

Slate

Description

Black slate quill-pen stand. It is in the shape of a pointed shoe with a squared toe, and has three holes in the top for quills and a hole for a shoe lace. Collected in North London. Shoes are a symbol of the journey through life and therefore lucky.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 110 x 20 x 20 mm