

Basic Detail Report

---

Mercury, leather, glass, string

Description

Hemetically sealed oblong bottle covered with grey leather and containing mercury. It is hung with string from both ends. Carried as a cure for rheumatism. Sold in London by one of the largest chemists in the world in 1916.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 65 x 15 mm

Curative-Charm

Date

1870 - 1916

Primary Maker

Edward Lovett

Medium