

Basic Detail Report

Medallion

Date
1800-1900

Primary Maker
William Monk

Medium
Lead

Description

Circular, fake medallion. On one side it depicts a portrait surrounded with letters around the edge; and on the other, a figure of a person running with a spear. The hoop is flanked by lions on the top. Made by the forgers William Smith and Charles Eaton, forgeries such as this were known as "Billy and Charley's."

Dimensions

Object/Work: 120 x 95 mm