

Basic Detail Report

Luck-Charm

Date
1870-1917

Primary Maker
Edward Lovett

Medium
Leather

Description

Child's shoe, popularly known as "the golden slipper". It was usually hung near the fire place as a charm for good luck and riches. Collected in south London in 1917.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 50 x 45 x 120 mm