

Basic Detail Report

---

Dimensions

Object/Work: 115 x 130 mm

Olla

Date

45-400

Medium

Upchurch-ware, coarse-ware

Description

Circular brown bowl. It consists of 12-14 fragments, including its rim. Pots such as this were called Olla and could be used for cooking, storing food, or as burial urns. It was found at London Wall in 1868.