

Basic Detail Report

Gaiter

Date

1815

Primary Maker

Captain Wilson

Medium

Canvas, wood

Description

Officer's military gaiter, one of a pair. It would have been worn on the lower leg. It is made of brown canvas with dark brown wooden buttons stitched up the leg. It is said to have been worn by Captain Wilson at the Battle of Waterloo.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 525 x 210 mm