

Vase

Date

1800-1900

Medium

Porcelain

Description

Porcelain vase, one of a pair, described as beakers in the original Cuming catalogue. It has a white background decorated with blue landscape scenes on the main body including houses, trees and mountains. The vase has a flared rim with elaborate blue decoration on the underside. Attributed to "Nankin" (Nanking or Nanjin) China.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 196 x 90 mm