

Mummy-Wrapping

Date

2700-384 BC

Primary Maker

Royal College of Surgeons

Medium

Cloth

Description

Woven cloth and bandages. These bandages would have covered the body of an Egyptian mummy which was unwrapped at the Royal College of Surgeons on January 16th 1834. Pieces of bandage were given to those present at the unwrapping and subsequent visitors to the RCS Museum.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 170 x 90 x 5 mm