

Basic Detail Report

Wig-Curler

Date

1650-1750

Medium

Clay

Description

Clay wig curler. Found at Newgate Street in September 1887. It would have been used to create the curls in wigs, which was a fashionable look for coiffure in the 17th and 18th centuries.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 70 x 7 mm