

Basic Detail Report

Epaulette

Date

1803

Primary Maker

Richard Cuming

Medium

Metal, silk, gold braid

Description

Ornamental shoulder decoration known as an Epaulette. They are usually worn on the shoulders as an indication of rank in the armed forces. This one was worn by Richard Cuming when in the Surrey Volunteers.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 80 x 210 x 70 mm