

Perfume-Bottle

Date
1700-1900

Medium
Glass

Description
Very small colourless glass toilet bottle with a cork stopper. Made of moulded glass, it has a round oval section of body, and a short neck, with no base. It has a diamond shaped paper label reading 'Lavender'. There are some yellow remnants inside. It would have held lavender water.

Dimensions
Object/Work: 40 mm