

Basic Detail Report

---

Button

Date
1700-1902

Primary Maker
Order of the Garter

Medium
Metal alloy, silver plated

Description

Circular button of the Order of the Garter. It is decorated with a cross in a central circle, surrounded by a circular engraving in Latin. The Order of the Garter is the oldest British Order of chivalry, founded in 1348 by Edward III. It commemorates those who have held public office, contributed to national life, or served the Sovereign personally.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 24 x 24 x 9 mm