

Basic Detail Report

Object/Work: 47 x 55 mm

Gallipot

Date

1690 - 1699

Medium

Earthenware

Description

Small round Delftware gallipot, with a speckled grey glaze. It has a wide mouth. The glaze has chipped away around the rim and base. Found in St Saviours churchyard in 1837. It would have been used for medicine.

Dimensions