

Basic Detail Report

Human-Remains

Date
1870

Primary Maker
Richard Cuming

Medium
Bone

Description

Human skull. One of several found at Tottenham at a depth of 9ft while excavating for the East London Waterworks. The label inside by Henry Syer Cuming records that this was the last specimen handled by his father, Richard Cuming, less than 60 hours before his death on 12th February 1870.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 135 x 130 x 170 mm