

Figure

Date

1485 - 1509

Medium

Wood, paint

Description

Painted wooden figure of a kneeling woman. She is looking upwards with her hand raised and wearing costume fashionable in Tudor times. It is possibly meant to be a carving of the Virgin Mary, and is said to be from a group of the Salutation.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 230 x 170 x 80 mm

