

Water-Storage-Vessel

Date
1835-1839

Primary Maker
Robert Schomburgk

Medium
Clay

Description

Murucca or water storage vessel, originally with a small cover. Coil-built, and dried in the sun after it has been coated with a deep brown or black colour. It would have been used for cooking food.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 330.2 x 914.4 mm