

Gallipot

Date

1600-1700

Medium

Earthenware

Description

Small, red-brown, circular gallipot of unglazed earthenware. It has a wide mouth, and half of the rim has been chipped away. Found in St. Saviours churchyard in 1837. It would have held medicine.