

Juglet

Date

800-300 BC

Medium

Ceramic

Description

Small red figure jug. It has a small base on a narrow stand, a bulbous body, and a wide flat rim on a thin neck. It would also have had a thin handle from the top of the body to the neck. It has been painted black leaving decoration in terracotta of a woman's face in profile, and decoration either side. The upper body is decorated with lines.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 118 x 75 x 75 mm