

Basic Detail Report

---

Writing-Box

Date

1800-1850

Medium

Papier-mache

Description

Persian Kalmdan or box for writing instruments. It is long and oblong shape with rounded ends. The cover pulls off to allow access to the case and it contains an ink well of stamped brass. There is painted decoration on the lid of a Persian lady in a landscape, with floral decoration around the body of the box. Black, red, yellow, green and brown in colour.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 25 x 38 x 210 mm