

Basic Detail Report

Luck-Charm

Date

1914 - 1918

Medium

Metal alloy

Description

Lucky Boots. One of four miniature metal boots with eyelets, two attached to a safety pin. They were worn as mascots by soldiers during the First World War, 1914-18. Boots are traditionally seen as luck because they represent the walk of life and safe passage.

Dimensions

Object/Work: 18 x 15 x 20 mm