Southwark Sappho

Date

1993 - 1994

Description

These pages are from the Lesbian Newsletter 'Southwark Sappho' produced by the Southwark Women's Centre on Peckham High Street from 1993-1994. The newsletter and related group aimed to provide 'non-separatist support' for all lesbians, running drop-in sessions and events considering issues such as racism in the lesbian and gay community as well as promoting local services and events taking place across London. Includes advert for Little Frida's, the women-only lesbian night featuring DJ Bug at the No. 1 Club, East Dulwich Tavern on Lordship Lane.
