

Pride Exhibition by Pam Isherwood

Date
2005

Description
Photographer Pam Isherwood's exhibition celebrates the history of Pride in London through images taken each year since the first gay and lesbian liberation protest marches in 1972. The Pride exhibition was created for Southwark

LGBT Network and Forum for the first LGBT History Month in 2005 and has since been shown at many venues over the years including John Harvard Library, the Menier Gallery and Cooltan Arts.
